The first sign of miracle that Jesus did, according to the Gospel of St. John, was to change some water into wine. According to the Gospel of St. John, was to change some water into wine. After the Consecration Holy Eucharist: the changing of the bread and the wine into the body and the blood of Christ, has been given a technical name by the Magisterium of the church that everyone should know: transubstantiation. Let us pray to obtain a strong faith and devotion in the real presence of Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. When we cannot go to Mass, we should try to make a daily visit to Jesus present in the Blessed Sacrament. What a great gift that Our Lord left us after returning to his Father!
