Visitors
Welcome to historic St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church! Built over a century ago, we all owe a debt of gratitude to the Irish faithful who were the first to call this church their parish. For apart from the countless sacrifices made by that first generation of faithful to build a suitable house of prayer and divine worship for the greater glory of God, this beautiful church would not exist. Our beautiful stained-glass windows, perhaps the most stunning feature of the church, have been newly restored. Rendered in the Munich Pictorial style, they depict scenes from the life of Christ as well as images of various angels and saints.

The careful observer will discern elements from the Gothic, Romanesque, and Byzantine styles which together make up the style known as Venetian Gothic. Bishop Paprocki consecrated the new main and side altars in 2012 and the style was chosen as a nod to the style of the original church established in 1839. The careful observer will also see the altar rail remains as it was. The liturgy celebrated at St. Rose follows the extraordinary form of the Roman Rite, and employs primarily the ancient Latin language. On Sunday, the translations of both the oration and propers of the Mass are provided. To follow daily Mass you may wish to invest in a daily Latin English Missal available at the rectory or download an app like iMass. Internet access is available in church at StRoseChurch (password: iMass). Make sure to mute your device while in church. Also, St. Rose’s state-of-the-art heating and cooling system assures a comfortable environment year round in which to pray and worship.

After both Sunday Masses, visitors are invited to meet and greet our parishioners in the parish hall and socialize over coffee and donuts. If interested in joining the parish, simply call the office.
From the Pastor's Desk:

The liturgical preparation for the greatest feast of Christianity, Easter, proceeds in five periods of penitential character. As the observance of this preparation approaches the feast; the penitential note grows progressively deeper and stricter. The first period is the season of pre-Lent, from Septuagesima Sunday to Ash Wednesday; the second extends from Ash Wednesday to Passion Sunday; the third comprises Passion Week; the fourth includes the days of Holy Week up to Wednesday; the fifth consists in the Sacred Triduum (seventy), Exaegesiad (sixtieth), and Quinquagesima (Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday).

In some French churches the custom developed in ancient times of allowing the congregation to take part in the celebration of a farewell ceremony: "Burial of the Alleluia": on Saturday before Septuagesima Sunday all choir boys gather in the sacristy during the prayer of the Noise, to prepare for the burial of the Alleluia. After the last Benedicita [i.e., at the end of the service] they march in procession, with crosses, tapers, holy water and censers; and they carry a coffin. As a funeral, they proceed through the aisle, moaning and mourning, until they reach the Cloister. There they bury the coffin; they sprinkle it with holy water and incense it; whereupon they return to the sacristy by the same way.

October 10:30am

The three Sundays preceding Lent are called Septuagesima (seventieth), Sexagesima (sixtieth), and Quinquagesima (fiftieth). They are not the seventieth, sixtieth, and fiftieth days before Easter; as their names would indicate. These titles seem to have been arbitrarily chosen for the sake of round numbers, in keeping with the much older term of Quadragesima (fortieth), which denotes the first Sunday of Lent. According to the regulations of St. Alexander II (1073) the Alleluia is sung twice after the prayers of the Divine Office (First Vespers), and not heard again till the solemn vigil service of Easter, when it once more is used as a glorious proclamation of joy. The expression "Alleluia, the Lord is risen" became the general greeting of Christians in early medieval times on the Feast of the Resurrection.

The three Sundays preceding Lent are called Septuagesima (seventieth), Sexagesima (sixtieth), and Quinquagesima (fiftieth).

The first Sunday is called Septuagesima Sunday.

The second Sunday is called Sexagesima Sunday.

The third Sunday is called Quinquagesima Sunday.
