From the Pastor's Desk: Pre-abortion Legislators barred from Receiving Holy Communion

Due to their leadership roles in promoting the evil of abortion by facilitating the passage of Senate Bill 25 this legislative session and House Bill 40 in 2017, House Speaker Michael Madigan and Senate President John Cullerton have been barred from receiving Holy Communion in the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois under a decree from Bishop Thomas John Paprocki of the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois. In addition, Illinois Catholic lawmakers who voted for either of these abortion bills are not to present themselves to receive Holy Communion.

The decree comes as these legislative leaders have shown obstinate and persistent support of extreme abortion legislation. House Bill 40 legalized taxpayer funding for abortion and Senate Bill 25 makes abortion a fundamental right, allowing for the killing of innocent children up to the moment of birth, and requires private insurance to pay for abortion, among other anti-life changes.

“The Eucharist is the most sacred aspect of our Catholic faith,” Bishop Paprocki said. “As sacred life changes.

“Pro-life is the pro-life of the Body of Christ. It is the pro-life of all life... and it is the pro-life of all life — of all the lives that we believe Christ loves, that Christ empowers, and that Christ makes sacred.””

Pope Pius XII encouraged lawmakers to follow the example of Saint Josemaría Escrivá, the founder of Opus Dei, who said: “A law is not a law for a person, but for everyone.”

To learn more about how the Church teaches on the sanctity of life, refer to Bishop Paprocki’s Homily from the Pastoral Letter “A New Call to Life.”
