Visitors
Welcome to historic St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church! Built over a century ago, we all owe a debt of gratitude to the Irish faithful who were the first to call this church their parish. For apart from the countless sacrifices made by that first generation faithful who were the first to call this church their parish. Victorian Gothic, Romanesque, and Byzantine styles which together make up the exterior of the church. A careful observer will discern elements of the Gothic, Renaissance, and French Baroque styles. The windows are believed to have been designed by one of the most prominent architects in Europe. The Great Wall of China, perhaps the most stunning feature of the church, have been newly restored. Rendered in the Munich Pictorial style, they depict scenes from the life of Christ as well as images of various angels and saints.

The liturgy celebrated at St. Rose follows the extraordinary form of the Roman Rite, and employs primarily the ancient Latin language. On Sundays, translations of both the ordinary and proper of the Mass are provided. To follow daily Mass you may wish to invest in a daily Latin English Missal available at the rectory or download an app like iMass. Internet access is available in church at StRoseChurch (password: latinmass).

The Excerpt from The Liturgical Year by Dom Prosper Gueranger

The lamentation over Jerusalem’s woe is, in the Western Church, the subject of today’s Gospel; and it gave its name to this ninth Sunday after Pentecost, at least among the Latins. We have already observed that it is easy to find, even in the Liturgy as it now stands, traces of how the early Church was all attention to the approaching fulfillment of the prophecies against Jerusalem, that ungrateful City, upon which our Jesus heaped his earliest favors. The last limit put by mercy upon justice has, at length, been passed. Our Lord, speaking of the ruin of Sinai and its Temple, had foretold that the generation that was listening to his words should not pass until what he announced should be fulfilled. The almost forty years accorded to Jethro, that he might avert the divine wrath, have had no other effect than to harden the people of desicides in their determination of not accepting Christ as the Messiah.

Moses, ages before, had seen the nation, whose tongue Israel could not understand, rushing, like an eagle, upon his chosen people and punishing them for their sins. But no sooner has the Roman eagle reached the land where he is to work the vengeance, than he finds himself visibly checked by a superior power and his spirit of rapine is held back, or urged on, just precisely as the prophets of the Lord of hosts had spoken it was to be.

As an illustration of this, we may mention what happened in the year 66. The army of Syria, under the leadership of Cestius Gallus, had encamped under the walls of Jerusalem. Our Lord intended this to be nothing more, in His plan, than a warning to his faithful ones, which he had promised them when foretelling the events that were to happen. He had said: When ye shall hear of wars, and seditions, and rumors of wars, be not terrified; these things must first come to pass: but the end is not yet presently.

But, when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed about with an army, then know, that the desolation thereof is at hand.

- Greeters before the 10:30 Mass on Sundays
  - It is very important to have someone in the vestibule to greet people as they come in and assist visitors who are new to our church. Will need to be in vestibule at 10:00 am so that you are there as people arrive. If we could have multiple people for this role, there will be a schedule just as there is for coffee & donuts. Please consider this even if you can only commit to once a month.
