* NOTICE ****

Vandals threw a brick through a window on the south side of parish hall shattering the glass. They entered and consumed alcohol that was in refrigerator and the Sunday snacks. The door was left ajar so it appears they intended to return. If you notice anything missing from the parish hall, please notify the office.

Our new insurance regulations no longer allow us to permit parishioners to bring in beer for themselves, not even for Sundays. If you rent the hall & will have alcohol, it cannot be brought in prior to your event & nothing may be left behind. Any alcohol found in refrigerator outside of a permitted event will be disposed of.

A Very Big Thank You to a parishioner who made a very generous donation to pay the balance for the Catholic Times invoice.

Speaking from Experience ...

A parishioner replied the following when asked if she could continue to fill the 1/2 hour "gap" in addition to her committed Holy Hour on Thursdays. She replied:

I'm enjoying every minute of my 90-minute holy hour. I look forward to it. I wish other parishioners could experience how wonderful it is just to be in the presence of Jesus. Some times I have Jesus all to myself. How special is that!

Thursdays need weekly commitment 11am - Noon and First Friday needs monthly commitment 3 - 4 pm.
