The door off the kitchen in the parish hall has been found ajar several times in the past few weeks. The door on the east side has also been found open. If you come into the parish hall, please pull on the door after you exit to make sure that it is locked and closed. If you have a group using the parish hall, the last person leaving should check all doors to make sure that they are secure and also check the bathrooms to make sure lights are out and sink faucets are not dripping.
