First Sunday of Advent

About a thousand years ago, the following “trope” was composed in honor of St. Gregory, from whom “Gregorian Chant” received its name. It is sung immediately before the Introit for the First Sunday of Advent. In art, Pope St. Gregory the Great (+604) is usually portrayed with the Holy Ghost in the form of a dove, whispering the chant melodies in his ear.

And so the most holy Gregory poured forth prayers to the Lord that He might give him a musical gift from above as songs. Then the Holy Ghost in the form of a dove descended upon him and instructed his heart, and so at last he began to sing this way:

Ad te levavi animam meam...(the Introit: to Thee I have lifted up my soul).

December Feast Days

We invite all parish families to join us for a special December Potluck on Sunday, December 7, immediately following the 11:00AM Mass (around 12:10PM)

To honor the beautiful feast days of this month, we will set up themed tables inspired by The Immaculate Conception, St. Ambrose, St. Nicholas, and Our Lady of Guadalupe.

Please bring a dish to share and place it at the table that best fits your chosen theme.

All are welcome - let's share fellowship, food, and the joy of the Advent season together!

There will be a sign up sheet in the vestibule.
