From Fr. Rickert...

Once again, I want to thank everyone for the warm welcome here, for all the help, and again, thanks to Fr. Pikus and Fr. Lawrence for bringing me here. I especially thank those who helped unload my things on Wednesday, July 8.

I have only one or two foreseen absences at this point. The first one is coming up soon. I'll go back to my hometown on July 15 for a few days. After that, I'll be a chaplain at a summer camp for Oxrose Academy, which I taught a class for last year and for which I will be teaching two courses this coming school year. They are an excellent school and I recommend them highly: oxroseacademy.com. I'll be back on the afternoon of July 25.

The other possible absence is a meeting for all the members of the North American Province of the Fraternity Aug. 24 to Aug. 28. It is not certain just yet whether I will go but I will keep you posted on this as I find out more.

It's my intention to have a message here every week, though the nature and tone of the message will probably vary. Sometimes I'll bring up a point that I didn't fit into the sermon. Sometimes I will make a recommendation. On a number of occasions, people have asked me after Mass, "Now, what was the name of that book or author you were speaking about?" so I might just mention it here.

I am glad to be here, and I look forward to getting to know you all. God bless.

This Sunday, July 12
