From Fr. Rickert...

Despite the high temperatures, summer is drawing to a close, and the new school year will soon be upon us. I hope that this academic year goes well for all of you, in whatever form you provide education for your children or, for that matter, if you are seeking education yourself. To instruct the ignorant is a spiritual work of mercy, and thus we should always pursue education as a work of love of God and love of souls. May God always guide you.

Silence after Mass

Kindly observe silence for at least 5 minutes after every Mass to allow everyone the opportunity to make a good thanksgiving. Thank you.

Parish Council

We will have a parish council meeting on Oct. 18. I would like to add some new members to the council. If you are interested in serving, please let me know by Sept. 6. I should let you know that the council is by appointment from the pastor (that is, myself) and is a consultative body. Still, the council serves a very important role in speaking up for the good of the parish.

Installation

The official installation of Fr. Rickert as Pastor will take place on Friday, Sept. 4. Everyone is welcome to attend. More details to follow.

Changes to Coffee & Donuts

Effective Aug. 16, we'll have a volunteer sign-up sheet. Please volunteer by the Wednesday before. If there are no volunteers by Thursday morning, we won't have coffee and donuts then. Briefly, if you have enjoyed them in the past, pitch in and help out so that they can continue.

I'd like to see this social time flourish. I realize some people drive in from far away, so it's good for them to be able to get some good interaction with one another before they make the trek back home.

Solemnity of St. Rose Aug. 30

We will celebrate St. Rose on her patronal feast day, Sunday, Aug. 30 after the 11:00 am Mass with a potluck lunch. Please RSVP on the sign-up sheet in the vestibule. Deadline to sign up is next Sunday, Aug. 23. Contact Adam DeRousse with any questions or if you would like to volunteer to

Religious Education

Beginning Sept. 6, religious education will be handled as follows. Those preparing for Confirmation and First Holy Communion should be instructed by their parents or their parents' delegates. When the student is ready, I will give an oral exam with at least one parent present. Speak with me further to know what to prepare your child on.

In addition, I will have an educational talk in the parish hall (upstairs) from about 9:15 to about 10:00. Hopefully we can do this most weeks. This talk will be open to everyone and will be about the level of a sermon, with, of course, interaction, Q & A, etc., from those present. There are a number of topics that could be of interest. I haven't decided on one just yet, and feel free to let me know if you have suggestions. Look forward to seeing you there.

Laundry & Ironing of Altar Linens

We need a team of volunteers willing to do the washing and ironing of our altar lines. Please contact the parish office or Fr. Rickert if you can help with this task.

Save the Date

It's time for a parish directory and the company will be taking the portraits October 29-31. More information coming soon.

Blessing of Religious Items

Religious items to be blessed should be placed in the bin in the priest's sacristy marked "to be blessed" and may later be picked up from the "already blessed" bin.

Holy Hour with Lay Carmelites

There will be an hour of Adoration followed by Benediction at St. Joseph Church, 400 South Lane St., Palmyra MO on August 16, 3:00 pm to 4:00 pm. All are invited to come and pray for our priests. St. Rose will host this Holy Hour on Oct. 18, the founding date of the Fraternity.
