From Fr. Rickert...

It is hard to believe how quickly the year is slipping away. Today is the last Sunday of the liturgical year, and next Sunday is the first Sunday of Advent. A month from now we will be singing the "O" Antiphons as part of Vespers to prepare for the Nativity of Our Lord. Tempus fugit.

This coming Thursday is Thanksgiving, which was first celebrated in 1621 in Plymouth colony, Massachusetts, and finally made into an official national holiday in 1863, by decree from Pres. Abraham Lincoln. Earlier, Pres. George Washington had designated Thursday, Nov. 26, 1789, as a day of public prayer and thanks. Thanksgiving is a holiday that should be especially meaningful to us.

But as Catholics, we can go much further and call to mind that "Eucharist" means "thanksgiving." This hearkens back to the Old Testament, where the only sacrifice that would last forever is the sacrifice of Thanksgiving. When we receive Our Lord in Person — Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity — we should do so with a deep sense of thanks that He has brought us to this sacred convivium.

Happy and blessed Thanksgiving!

Next Sunday, November 29

Diocesan Second Collection for Campaign for Justice & Hope. A letter from Bishop Paprocki is posted to the bulletin board.

If you do not receive offertory envelopes you may submit your memorial donation with names in any envelope and mark it "Christmas Memorials".

St. Rose would like to post a business directory on the bulletin boards of our church so that parishioners can support their fellow parishioners. The purpose of this is to provide information, and not to make any recommendations as such, of course.
