External Solemnity of the Epiphany

Vol.2, Number 9
We will be starting a new. We will Aquinas. ( ...

The Church celebrates all the mysteries of the Lord in this who are every day witnesses and ministers of the Jesus “manifested his glory; and his disciples believed in Cana, during which, by changing the water into wine, in adoration, thus we pray along with St Thomas in Heaven.

The Epiphany is the manifestation of the Lord and as a reflection, it is the manifestation of the Church, since the Body is inseparable from the Head. Today's First Reading, from "Third Isaiah", gives us the precise perspective for understanding the reality of the Church as a mystery of reflected light: “Aris, shine” the Prophet says, addressing Jerusalem, “for your light has come, / and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you” (Is 60:1). The Church is humanity illuminated, “baptized” in the glory of God, her Lord. It is not from her that light comes; the glory is not hers. But this is precisely her joy, which no one can take from her: to be a “sign and instrument” of the One who is “lumen gentium”, the light of humanity.

Dear brothers and sisters, pray for us, Pastors of the Church, that by assimilating the Word of Christ we may pass it on faithfully to our brethren. Yet we too pray for you, all the faithful, because every Christian is called through Baptism and Confirmation to proclaim Christ, her Lord. It is not from her that light comes; the glory is not hers. But this is precisely her joy, which no one can take from her: to be a “sign and instrument” of the One who is “lumen gentium”, the light of humanity.

From now on, confessions will begin 45’ before Mass. A great thanks to Dr. & Mrs. John Dailey for this great recording. For those who have missed the mission or missed some of the talks, it is a must!

Christmas Decorations: A Great Thanks to Sherry Kenner and Jennifer Drew and all those who helped them decorate the Church for the Christmas Season.

Prayer for Life: Eternal God, You have revealed that You are the Father of all life. We pray for the Fatherly care which you extend to all creation, and especially to us, made in Your image and likeness.

Father, extend your hand of protection to those threatened by abortion and save them from its destructive power.

Give Your strength to all mothers and fathers, that they may never give in to the fears that tempt them to abort their child.

Bless our families and bless our land, that we may have the joy of welcoming and nurturing the life of which You are the source and the Eternal Father.
