Welcome to St. Rose

Did you know that the Council Vatican II declared that "The use of the Latin language, with due respect to particular law, is to be preserved in the Latin rites"? At St. Rose, it is certainly the case. However, you may not be used to Latin so it will take you some time to get familiar with the extraordinary form of the Roman Rite. We provide you with some brief indications below but do not hesitate to ask for help. St. Rose Latin Mass Chaplaincy is a Catholic community established by the Bishop of Springfield in the fall of 2008.

On Sunday, you may follow Mass with a red booklet (pews) and a Proper leaflet (vestibule). Hymnals are also available for Sung Masses (vestibule). On Weekdays, you need a daily Latin -English Missal to follow Mass. They are available at Poppe's (1886 Maine, Quincy). You may also follow the ordinary with a red booklet.

There are collection or donation envelopes available in pews and vestibule for visitors. If you wish to receive a tax receipt or/and be kept informed on the life and activities of our community at St. Rose, make sure you give us your name and address. To join the chaplaincy, call the church office.

On Sunday, please do come to the hall after Mass to meet the community. Coffee & Donuts are available.

† God Bless all those not here... That should be. †

From the Chaplain's Desk: First Sunday of Advent

Taken from True Christmas Spirit, by Fr. Edward J. Sutfin

The Collect Prayer of the first Sunday in Advent is an impassioned plea which arouses family and school from the lethargy of "just ordinary days." It begins, "Stir up Thy power, we beseech Thee, O Lord, and come!" What a change and what a stir the realization that we have come upon the first Sunday in Advent makes within the soul! The warmth of new life and of a new year courses through our veins, and everything inspires us with hope, longing and excitement.

Advent means arrival, coming, and stands first of all for the approach of the promised Messias, and secondly for the return of the ascended Christ at the end of the world. Both thoughts are expressed in the liturgy of the Advent and Christmas season, including the feast of the Epiphany, which not only celebrates the revelation of the divinity of Christ...but also the final revelation of his Kingship in the last judgment."

On the Saturday evening before the first Sunday, the family gathers to put the wreath together. The circle of the wreath represents eternity, or the unceasing flow of the sun following its prescribed course; the four candles divide the time, representing the "four thousand" years of waiting and longing for the arrival of the Saviour. When all is in readiness, the wreath is suspended at some prominent place in the house, or else it may be placed upon a table which serves as a family altar.

Then the family prepares for the Sunday Mass. "The King, the Saviour, will come, let us adore Him" (Invitatory for Matins). The first spiritual preparation of the family centers about a full understanding of Holy Mass, of the three comings of our Lord: as the child at Bethlehem, as the Judge at the end of the world, and in sanctifying grace each day, provided we stay away from sin, and remain always ready to offer Him the thanksgiving which is the Mass and to incorporate ourselves into Him at Holy Communion. At the end of this preparation, or at the Sunday dinner, the father of the family begins the family prayer with the blessing of the wreath, and the oration for the First Sunday. In the light of the single candle the children lift up their voices in an Advent song

There are four songs which are appropriate and readily available for early Advent. The first one is, of course, the "Rorate Coeli" (well-translated into a singable English version, available from St. John's Abbey, Collegeville, Minn.) The longing of the ancient world for the coming of the Saviour, expressed in the words of Isaias, is adequately voiced in this love song. Learn it well, and the children will look forward to this hymn as the beginning of the joyous Christmastide.

The Vesper hymn of Advent is even more simple and appealing to children: "Creator of the stars of night, Thy people's everlasting light, Jesus, Redeemer, save us all And hear Thy servants when they call..." Indeed, this Vesper hymn pertains to the very liturgy itself, and along with the "Alma Redemptoris Mater" should become the theme song of Advent. The latter antiphon may be sung on the simple or the solemn tone. Some children seem to prefer the solemn one, and you may well imagine the joy in Mary's heart when she hears children singing "Loving Mother of the Redeemer!"

One is a reproduction of our back window: the seven angels/spirits before the throne of God and the other one a reproduction of our gospel-side window: the Nativity scene. You may obtain them at the rectory during Business hours or after Mass today in the vestibule.
- Legion of Mary: Do you know that 2 groups of the Legion of Mary meet at St. Rose? The group for young people between the age of 10 and 18 meets on Monday at 4 pm and the group for adults meets on Tuesday at 1:30 pm. The Legion of Mary helps Catholics to be active on behalf of their Church as witnesses in evangelization and in the renewal of society. Senior member and president is Ella Reiter. One hour of active service is performed weekly. Some of their works include: making rosaries, visiting shut-ins, charity work for people, leading the rosary at nursing homes, serving the TV Mass, and assisting at church functions. Visit our website to learn more: Legionofmaryquincycuria.com or contact Ella Reiter at 224-4312. The purpose of a Junior Praesidium is not primarily the doing of a certain amount of useful works for family and others but also the training and spiritual growth of its members. This is a wonderful way for any young person ages 10 to 18 to serve Our Lord through His Blessed Mother.
- There will be no Card Parties at St. Rose in November and December. Card Parties will resume Tuesday, January 25, 2011.
- Please let the secretary know if you make a change in Names, Addresses, Phone Numbers or E-mails. Thank You.
